Our Town

Early this year two members of the school board, had published under their signature an appeal to the citizens of Cameron for an effort directed to relieve the gammar school conditions that make for the ill health of the pupils, setting out the need for more room, a heating plant and better light and study conditions. To this appeal considerable attention was paid at the time, but in the subsequent press of events seems to have been forgotten. We take it that the school board members understand the need of the school better than anyone else and that unless the bonds are voted and new building erected a serious criticism may be lodged against the people. Later consideration of the school problem developed that the negro school is unfit to house pupils and some well directed efforts were made to bring the needs of the negroes to the favorable attention of the tax payers. That effort also has not persisted as would seem strong enough and so both propositions constitute a charge, more or less against all who would achieve bigger things for Cameron, that should be met with a vigorous advocacy of a new grammar school and a new and fire proof brick school for the negroes. Now, what answer have we who are the best friends to the school?

While the dry weather is causing general concern over the county for the welfare of the corn and cotton crop, the crop of thistles and weeds on the campus of the Yoe High School building seem to be doing nicely and unless the folks get busy with the cycle of civic progressiveness a good crop is assured. The large pile of crates and boxes and coal cinders piled at the rear of the building have lost none of their scenic effect and indications are they will become a permanent fixture and as soon as we become accustomed to them will cease to complain about their unsightliness. It is thougnt that when the cinder pile gets large enough the building will be protected from the north against the elements thereby reducing the necessity for maximum fuel consumption. By the time school starts in September (if it rains) some of the streets surrounding the building will have become impassable, thereby completing its utter isolation from civic care. Thank you for your attention!

The Comets are gone. Cameron's baseball destiny for 1923 has been sealed so far as our being able to contend for Central Texas championship is concerned. The club this year failed because financial support was not forthcoming. No better record was ever made than that made this year. The club disintegrated because of the financial condition and now it would be impossible to obtain good men to finish the season. Manager Rogers gave the city a winning club in 1922 and would have repeated the performance this year had adaquate financial support been accorded the club. The disbanding of the club is not consistent with the sporting tradition of the town, though it is not here intended to criticise in the face of conditions which render the people unable to carry on with the many subscription burdens to bear.

Plant a few seeds
Good words and deeds,
Out in the sunshine to grow.
Keep going, don't stop,
You'll gather a crop—
Of happiness just as you sow.

Taylor won first money in the reel races Tuesday at Cameron's big Prosperity Picnic and July Celebration. The prize money amounted to $200. The time was 28.2.

Seguin with a fast team took second place with a time of 30.4. The prize money in this second time was $100.

Granger was third in the events with a time of 32.4 thus taking third money of $50.

Low pressure in the water mains made slow time. The firemen had to wait for water and therefore all made slow time.

The Cameron team running for an opening of the races made the time in 31 flat. The Cameron team did not compete for money as they entertained the visiting firemen and were not allowed to compete.

In all there were six teams competing for the prizes. Taylor had two teams and both run but afiled to take any money except first prize. The teams running were: Taylor, two teams; Seguin, Granger, Belton, Rogers. The first team to run was Belton with a time of 32.4 This time was badly beaten by Taylor's first team which ran second with a time of 28.2.

Thousands of people who were in the city park for the barbecue lined the streets and overflowed to the lawns of adjoining residences to see the reel races, the biggest single event of the program for the day.

HIGHWAY REPORT.

By Radio, courtesy of J. T. Parma.
Thursday July 5, 11 a. m.

All highways are passable in Texas but rough and almost impassable in Louisiana.

Dallas via Rosebud, Waco, Hillsboro, Venus, Alvarado and Grandbury will be found good.

Colorado Springs via Amarillo is good. To Colorado Springs via Dallas and Fort Worth is very rough and shouuld not be attempted.

Now is the time to spend your vacation out in the mountains around Kerrville, Junction and on the Llano rivers, those more venturesome should go out to the Jeff Davis mountains, but you will enjoy it just the same nearer home.

San Antonio route via Rogers, Taylor to Austin good, Buda to San Marcos, rough, Hunter to San Antonio good.

Travelers are still complaining of the heavy sand between Milano and Criesman on the route to Caldwell. Best route to Caldwell is via Rockdale and Lexington.

Speed limit was raised from 25 to 35 miles on public highways, but the smaller towns along most any route, are somewhat peeved over this change and therefore caution should be used in passing thru such towns, and their specified speed should be used in entering them.

CAMERON BANDS MAKE MUSIC AT BIG BARBECUE

THOUSANDS HEAR TALENT IN BIG ARRAY OF MUSIC FOR JULY 3.

One of the big features of the July 3 celebration was the band music furnished by the two bands of Cameron, the Pioneer Concert Band and the Cameron Municipal Band.

The muncipal band under the direction of P. H. Medsker led the parade and played througout the day, alternating with the Pioneer Concert band directed by J. T. Parma, well known musician and band leader.

The Pioneer band occupied a place about mid way of the procession in the parade and played a march written by Mr. Parma. This march, a stirring strain, was written by Mr. Parma about twelve years ago and was favorably commented on by all who heard the Pioneer band play it.

Leading the procession was the municipal band playing the Cameronian march written by Mr. Medsker and introduced for the first time by Radio from a concert band in Waco early this year.

The base ball game in the afternoon was up to all expectations, Cameron winning in a brilliant streak of work in the ninth inning. The score was Cameron 2, Caldwell 1. The largest crowd ever assembled in the park saw the game.

The day passed without accidents, the city taking precautions to add a number of extra police for the day and the barbecue grounds were policed by American Legion members.

INDICTMENTS RETURNED IN SHOOTING OFFICER

WESSLEY STEVENS AND JIM BRASHEAR TO BE TRIED IN CONNECTION WITH RAID

Indictments have been returned against Wessley Stevens and Jim Brashear in the District Court by the grand jury which ended its work on June 28, growing out of the raid made on the Stevens farm on Thursday June 7, when Deputy Sheriff Will Little of Buckholts was shot and seriously wounded.

An indictment charging assault with intent to murder was returned against Wesley Stevens, and also an indictment charging Stevens with manufacturing intoxicating liquors.

An indictment charging manufacturing intoxicating liquors was returned against Jim Brashear who was with Wesley Stevens at the time of the attack on the officer, according to the statement of Deputy Little.

Little was shot in the right hip with a shot gun and four pounds of flesh blown away. He was shot from the door of a barn when he sought to place Stevens under arrest, according to his statement which was made to the Herald from his bed in the local hospital.

The men were later placed under arrest by Sheriff Rogers and Deputy Sheriff N. O. Kennedy. Deputy Sheriff Little was sent to Cameron by Bob Stevens, father of Wessley, for treatment.

CAMERON NEGRO HUNG

Jesse Bullock, negro, who was lynched by enraged citizens of Fayette, Colorado and Lavaca counties, at Schulenberg of July 4, formerly resided in Cameron and at one time was tried for the murder of John Tillis, negro, and was convicted.

When the officers captured Bullock he confessed to an assault on a 12 year old white girl, and said that his home was in Cameron.

Mr. Medsker cancelled the concert on request from a number of citizens interested in the meeting. The concerts will be resumed next week as usual.

Mrs. Phil Blaylock and son of Lexington, Texas, are visiting Mrs. Magee and her son D. B. Magee and family.

THOUSANDS ATTEND BIG CELEBRATION IN CAMERON

More than ten thousand people were in Cameron Tuesday to attend the Prosperity Picnic and free barbecue held under the direction of the American Legion and Firemen.

Long before the hour announced for the parade the streets were crowded and the barbecue grounds in the park had begun to be taxed to accommodate the crowds.

Thousands of automobiles were parked adjoining the picnic grounds under the direction of American Legion men who had been deputised as special police for the day.

The park was decorated in the National colors with flags appropriately hung about the speaker's stand where throughout the day the bands played and the program of speaking was carried out as scheduled.

At 8:30 o'clock cars and floats for the parade began to assemble at the park for the procession and at the appointed time more than seventy-five exhibits were in line. Among the largest contributions to the parade was automobiles by Cameron dealers, the largest contribution by the Shires Motor Company, featuring Star, Durant and Nash. The Red Bird was featured by Wilkerson Bros., and the Studebaker by Joe J. Michalka.

Decorations were in charge of a committee of which Mrs. F. C. Fahrendorf was chairman. The parade was in charge of a committee of which T. S. Henderson, Jr., was chairman.

In the parade Mrs. H. F. Smith and Mrs. A. N. Weems were awarded first prizes for the best decorated car for town entries and Mrs. Leslie Boatright was given first prize for the best decorated car in the country entries. The prizes in each award was $10. The Committee to award the prizes were Miss Lillian Aakinson, Mrs. R. H. McIntosh and Mrs. R. S. Boykin, Judges.

Announcement of the prize awards were made from the speakers stand by T. S. Henderson, Jr., at the close of the address by Congressman Luther Johnson.

Barbecue was served beginning at twelve o'clock. The lunch was served cafeteria style from tables built on plans furnished by A. F. Mitchell, commander of the Legion post. More than eight thousand people passed through the isles and received their plates of food served by volunteers for the noon hour under the chairmanship of Leland Green.

The plan for serving the crowds was evolved from the army method and in this instance was used to great advantage to handle a crowd of this size.

Coffee and tea was served by the Robert McLane Company under the direction of John E. Mangum. The faumous Maxwell House tea and coffee were served and the advertising slogan "good to the last drop" is now fully appreciated by thousands who came here to be the guests of the city.

Aside from the barbecue which was prepared under the supervision of Wallace Moody and John Worcester, cooked and prepared in surpassing fashion, hundreds of pies and cakes were sent to the tables by the housewives of Cameron under the direction of Mrs. Jeff T. Kemp, chairman of the soliciting committee.

There was enough for all and no disappointments in any respect over the barbecue served. Under the system used to serve the crowds no difficulty was experienced.

Ice water was furnished by the committee of which Jim Neinast was chairman.

The grounds committee of which Dr. James Watson was chairman made good disposition of the space in the park to accommodate the crowds. In this work he had the co-operation of George T. Graves, chairman of the finance committee which raised $1035 for the expenses of the day.

Thirty-six beeves were slaughtered for the barbecue and a number of goats and hogs. All these were gievn by farmers and stockmen and some who live in the city.

Judge John Watson was chairman of the speaking committee and arranged the program for that feature. Transportation was furnished by the city with C. R. Phillips as chairman of the committee while the grounds were policed by American Legion men under Leo Laake as chief of the police.

In the racing and judging committee Monta Thomas, Joe Lindsey and Roy Weems served with credit to the program. Some $200 was made net on the stands operated for the Legion and base ball club under the direction of Ray Robinson, chairman of the concessions committee.

Paul H. Medsker was chairman of the music committee and two bands were on hand to play for crowds, the Pioneer Concert Band and the Cameron Municipal Band.

One of the big tasks in connection with the barbecue was the handling of the meat. As chairman of the committee to gather the stock John Worcester served well. The beeves were slaughtred under the supervision of Giles L. Avriett, chairman of the slaughtering committee. Ernest Brod was made a memeber of this committee and the meat was killed and dressed in his slaughter house where the public meat supply is handled. This was done in a most satisfactory manner.

It is said that the barbecue crowd was the laragest since Hogg and Clark spoke here in that memorable campaign of Texas history for the governorship. There were many from adjoining counties and estimates vary from the conesrvative figure of ten thousand to fifteen thousand people.

LADY WAS IN A BAD FIX FROM NERVOUS INDIGESTION

Biloxi, Miss.—"I had, for a year or more, nervous indigestion, or some form of stomach trouble," says Mrs. Alonzo Ford, 1117 Clay Street, this city. "The water I drank at that time seemed to constipate me. I would suffer until I got so nervous I wanted to get down on the floor and roll. I felt like I could tear my clothes.

"Every night, and night after night, I had to take something for a laxative, and it had to be kept up nightly. My side would pain. I looked awful. My skin was sallow and seemed spotted. I would look at my hands and arms, and the flesh looked lifeless.

"I happened to get a Birthday Almanac, so I told my husband I would try the Black-Draught, which I did. I took a few big doses. I felt much better. My liver acted well. I made a good, warm tea and drank it that way. Soon I found that nervous, tight feeling was going, as was the pain in my side. I found I did not have to take it every night. Soon, after a few weeks, I could leave it off for a week or so, and I did not suffer with constipation. . . I gained flesh. I have a good color, and believe it was a stubborn liver, and that Black-Draught did the work.

"I went to my mother's (Mrs. Deeters) one day, and she wasn't well at all. . . I told her we'd try Black-Draught. We did, and now she keeps it to take after eating. It certainly helped her, and we neither will be without it in our homes. It is so simple, and the dose can be regulated as the case may be. We use small doses after meals for indigestion, and larger doses for headache or bad liver."

Who owns the Santa Fe?

Not a few persons, but many thousands, are stockholders in this great railway. All have a voice in its management.

The number of stockholders living in states traversed by the Santa Fe is steadily increasing.

Every railroad has two classes of people interested in its financial structure—viz., the stockholders and the bondholders. In the minds of many, both classes are considered as owners. As a matter of fact, only the holders of the stock are owners. The bondholders are loaners of money, the bonds representing a mortgage on the property to insure payment of money loaned.

The Stockholders of the Santa Fe are, therefore, the owners of the road. Each share has an equal voice in all meetings of the Company. At the annual meeting vacancies in the Board of Directors are filled and such other business transacted as requires action by the stockholders.

Number of Stockholders—

There were on December 31st last 64,643 stockholders, of which 29,820 were men, 29,235 women, and the balance made up of firms, estates, and institutions, among the latter being—

122 insurance companies;
108 educational institutions;
93 religious organizations;
89 hospitals and charitable bodies.

Average Holding—

The average holding of stock was only 55.4 shares per name, but the holdings run from one share upwards—

14,583 held 5 shares or less;
26,335 held from 6 to 20 shares;
12,938 held from 21 to 50 shares;
6,378 held from 51 to 100 shares;
Only 4,409 held over 100 shares.

Two Classes of Stock—

RENEWED TESTMONY

No one in Cameron who suffers backache, headaches, or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this Cameron man's twice-told story. It is confirmed testimony that no Cameron resident can doubt.

M. W. Mitchell, retired farmer, 503 E. Fifteenth St., says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had a weakness across my back and loins. The kindey secretions annoyed me by their irregular passage, at times being too free and then again, scanty. Very often the kidney secretions contained a brick-dust-like sediment. A friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills and I used them. Doan's soon relieved me of all symptoms of kidney complaint."

Over Four Years Later, Mr. Mitchell added: "I feel just as kind toward Doan's Kidney Pills now as when I endorsed them before. Doan's are my standard remedy for kidney complaint."

SOMERVILLE RAILROAD MAN SHOT BY MASKERS

INTENDED VICTIM IS SHOT DURING SCUFFLE WHEN HE AND WIFE RESISTS.

Houston, Texas, July 3.—Otto Lange, living near Somerville, Burleson county, was shot to death during a scuffle with four masked men who came to take him from his home last night, according to word received here this afternoon.

Three of the men entered the Lange home, according to reports to officers, and attempted to force Lange to leave with them. Lange and his wife resisted and in an encounter the fatal shot was fired, passing through Lange's chest and wounded his 3 year old baby, according to the accounts to authorities.

The fourth man remained in a car, the statement went on, and after the shooting the three joined him and fled.

Lange lived for a few minutes and was able to tell his family that he recognized none of the assailants.

Lange's brother arriving on the scene, fired a shot at the fleeing car but it is not known if anyone was hit.

The baby's finger was cut off by the shot which passed through Lange's body.

COMETS DOWNED BY THE KELLY-BONE.

Belton, July 4.—The Cameron Comets struck a snag in their dash for central Texas championship honors here this afternoon when they were swamped under a 11 to 1 score by the Kelly-Bone Printers of Waco.

Stokes started on the mound for the Comets but was no puzzle for the Printers, a total of 12 hits having been charged to his delivery in the six rounds that he worked. All of the 11 scores were made against him, but a large number were the results of rank errors on the part of the Comet's makeshift infield.

Charlie Taylor, who has been the cream of the Dallas semi-pro pitchers for the past few years, was on the mound for the Printers, and in addition to holding the Comets helpless, laced out a couple of clean hits that aided in his victory.

11,412,000 COTTON CROP GOVERNMENT FORECAST

RECORD FOR ACREAGE SAID TO HAVE BEEN BROKEN IN REPORT OF DEPARTMENT.

Washington, July 2.—This year's cotton crop was forecast at 11,412,000 bales today by the Department of Agriculture.

The forecast was based on the condition of the crop on June 25 which was 69.9 per cent of normal and on the preliminary estimate of the area under cultivation at that time which was 38,287,000 acres or 12.6 per cent more than last year's area on that date.

Virginia 83,000 acres and condition 90 per cent of normal.
North Carolina 1,704,000 and 80.
South Carolina 2,049,000 and 64.
Georgia 3,927,000 and 56.
Florida, 171,000 and 65.
Alabama 3,212,000 and 68.
Mississippi 3,353,000 and 67.
Louisiana 1,316,000 and 69.
Texas 14,077,000 and 77.
Arkansas 3,025,000and 66.
Tennessee 1,193,000 and 67.
Missouri 394,000 and 62.
Oklahoma 3,357,000 and 64.
California 235,000 and 91.
Arizona 133,000 and 92.
All other states 115,000 and 80.

The scarcity of cotton, due to last year's short crop, and the diversity of opinion as to the extent of this year's planting and the condition of the crop, have focused attention on the Government's official report.

A special report of the crop reporting board on April 20 indicated that the farmers intended to plant 12 per cent more acreage ot cotton this year than they did last year.

A group of well known economists and statisticians invited by Secretary Wallace to consider the report, etsimated that on the basis of this intention, making allowance for abandonment, the cotton acreage harvested in 1923 would be 36,888,000 acres. Their statement also concluded that if the yield per acre should prove the same as the average for the five-year, 1918-22, the real crop would be 11,810,000 bales, if the same as the lowest yield in those five years it would be 9,610,000 bales, ad if the same as the highest yield it would be 12,770,000 bales.

In making its forecast today, the Department of Agriculture pointed out that the final out-turn may be larger or smaller, depending on whether conditions developing during the remainder of the season prove more or less favorable to the crop than the average. Production last year 9,761,817 bales, two years ago 7,593,641, three years ago 13,439,603, and four years ago 11,420,763 bales.

The condition of the crop on May 25 this year was 71.0 per cent of a normal and on June 25 last year 71.2 per cent, while the 10-year average June 25 condition is 71.2 per cent of a noraml.

Quart of Water Cleans Kidneys

Take a Little Salts if Your Back Hurts, or Bladder is Troubling You

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Eating too much rich food creates acids, which excite the kidneys. They become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood. Then we get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin drinking a quart of water each day, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys may act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to help neutralize the acids in the system, so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby often avoiding serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

FOR OUR COUNTRY.

Yesterday the Nation expressed its love for its country and its flag; bands played, speeches were made, fireworks wrote their message of patriotism in the sky, Old Glory was honroed, men cheered, women sang. It is a wonderful observance, our Fourth of July. But how much more wonderful would it be if every day was a day of patriotic celebration; if every day we took to our hearts and read to our children some practical patriotic speech; if every day we lived what on this one day we express.

Mr. American Father, read these two quotations to your children this day, that they may learn that patriotism is not only for the celebration of Independence Day.

Said President Harding at Salt Lake City:

"War brought us to lesson that we had not been so American in spirit as we had honestly pretended. Some of our adopted citizenship wore the habiliments of America, but were not consecrated in soul. Some to whom we have given all the advantages of American citizenship would destroy the very institutions under which they have accepted our hospitality. Hence our commitment to the necessary Americanization which we too long neglected. The American Legion, baptized anew in the supreme test on foreign battlefields, is playing its splendid part. Those who bore war's burdens at home have joined, and all America must fully participate. It is not enough to enlist the sincere allegiance of those who come to accept our citizenship; we must make sure for ourselves, for all of us, that we cling to the fundamentals to the practices which enabled us to build so successfully and avoid the errors which tend to impair our vigor and becloud our future."

Said Ford Van Hosen, Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Iowa, A. F. A. M., at its annual meeting in Sioux City:

"In this country the right of the children of the state to receive at the hands of the state an elementary ducation is almost as firmly rooted-in our system of government as are the guarantees of protection to life and liberty and safety of persons and property.

"There are now agencies in our country that attempt to subvert the rights guaranteed by our laws and Constitution, and even the rights of the parents themselves in dictating the education of our children by saying that 'education is none of the state's business.' Surely no church or sect has the right to place its authority over the state in the matter of compulsory education in our public schools, for when they attempt to take this prerogative from the Government, then we no longer have a free Government with the power to insure the protection of our rising generation.

"With religious discussions we have nothing to do. Masonry grants to all men the right of religious liberty, as each of us insists on our own rights of conscience and form of religious worship, but we do claim and insist that our Government shall be left free without religious dictation to exercise control over the education of the child, that the true democracy established by our forefathers may go upward and onward, and that our future citizens may be thoroughly imbued with the spirit of patriotism and loyalty, so that all our people will have the same opportunities for knowledge to fit them for their duties as citizens of our country."

VOTE FOR THE AMENDMENT.

The Thirty-eighth Legislature has made it possible for Texas to have a state system of hard-surfaced roads—constructed and maintained by the state with state and Federal funds. Probably not all was done that the most enthusiastic supporters of the good roads movement thought should be done, and very likely not all was done that would have been, had the Legislature had more time, but good road legislation was clearly the most constructive program put through at the last esssion of the Legislature or during recent Legislatures. This program alone would well entitle the Thirty-eighth Legislature to its reputation of being the most constructive Legislature in recent years.

Reports from other states indicate that most of them failed to get any relief from their Legsilature, and that some of them, that have legal obstacles preventing them from complying with the Federal Aid act, are in great danger of losing their aid. In fact our sister state Arkansas has already had all aid cut off and all Federal engineers have been removed from the state.

Many of the most progressive states have already made provisions for accepting Federal Aid, and for the completion of their state system of roads under the direct supervision of the state.. Several of the states passed a two-cent gasoline tax for road building purposes at the recent session of the Legislature, and several increased the license fees, but the reports show that the regular session of the Texas Legislature accomplished more along the road building line than any other one session of the Legislature in any other state.

The action of the Thirty-eighth Legislature clearly proves that it was alive to the strong public sentiment in favor of a state system of roads. The great increase in motor vehicle traffic has not only created a strong public sentiment in favor of good roads, but has created a public demand for a connected system of hard-surfaced highways, connecting up the farm with the town and the town with the city. There is no better sign of a prosperous, progressive citizenship than a good system of well constructed and properly maintained highways. A community will be judged by its roads and its schools. Good roads and good schools are not only signs of prosperity but they bring prosperity.

In the face of the world's unrest and dissatisfaction today the testimony of the Secretary of War, Hon. John W. Weeks, before the conference on religious and moral training for soldiers held recently in Washington, is worthy of serious consideration. He says: "I feel personally, as all men must who have passed the meridian of life, a growing inclination towards religion and religious life. I speak in the broadest sense of course. I am fearful about the results that have come and are coming from the late war. Civilization is not, as I see it, as stable a quantity as it was before the great war. The civilization of the world is threatened. Nothing will hold mankind better together or be of as much benefit to men of all nations as religion."

"The Battle Ground of Reason"

Mr. Editor:

Dear Sir—As you published a letter from Lubbock, Texas, I will try and pen you a few dots as to what I saw and felton the trip to Colorado Springs. We left Lubbock Sunday Morning June 17 for the first stop at Shallow Water, nice little town land level and smoothe, good wheat and oat crop.

Thence to Texico City, small and very rockie, thence to Clovis, N. M., fine looking, all modern buildings, this was our first night out. We are getting on high ground, the wind blows at forty to fifty miles an hour, some blow, plenty of sand storms. Fort Sumpter not much, Here they build their houses of mud and plaster which makes a neat building, some two stories high, these called dobies, right and proper you can say for them, they have fine watter, some nice orchards, but no fruit. Here is where they dig for wood and climb for water.

Santa Rosa, N. M., is very nice, populated mostly with mountains and rockies, free camp ground awaits every tourist of which I was one. We took our noon day lunch here, found the water bad but cool. Stayed here two hours let a bad looking cloud pass, but it turned out to be a windy.

Thence to Rotan which is in a villa surrounded by mountains where it took three locomotives to pull the passenger train, two to pull one one to push.

Well after I had breakfast I started to climb one of these mountains just how high, I can't say but I looked down to see my wife and she seemed something like a doll to me. It is no trouble to get down only watch your step and don't fall but, probably could have heard the angels singing but I didn't.

I guess there were one hundred campers on the ground.

Las Vegas, next reached, passed through some fine county, thinly settled, they have no funeral processions as there are not enough people in the country to start one, in fact I don't know about their dying as see no cemeteries.

Crops are very short, wheat and oats only six to eight inches high and thin and can't get any higher for the land is thin. This brings us to Colorado Springs on Wednesday June 20 at 4 o'clock, a beautiful place, plenty of cool water and just from melting snow.

While I am writing in my shirt sleeves and look on a snow bank, everything looks lovely to a mossback like myself.

Colorado Springs has a population of 30,000 and a number of millionaires and they are not afraid to spend their money. The streets are wide and paved and right here you can't pass through any city but what they have paved streets, if it is just a postoffice and garage, they have paved one street any way and realy they do do big things.

I did not go up on Pikes Peak. I believe in safety first. I saw the mountain and was satisfied that it was there and had not been misrepresented, it is claimed to be 14,109 feet high and 18 miles to the top.

Around the road they charge you a fare of $5.50 for the round trip. I could have gone up several ways, one a Burro, which is a small donkey or an auto or by cog railroad but prefered to look than go.

Well the cave of the winds is located 7475 feet above sea level, was discovered in 1880 by two boys 9 and 11 years of age, they were chasing a rabbit, so said, but I could not find out what become of the rabit or boys, I did not go in myself but Mrs. Ruby venturel in, I bid her good bye at the mouth and stood as a weeping willow for her return. I don't think it is much to see as she don't talk much about it and you know Mr. Editor a woman will talk.

Well, I could fill all the pages of your paper with what I saw and heard, so you will readily see that we are supplying the west for the reason we are knocking one another and don't pull together.

Let me tell you something I was invited out to a mass meeting at Lubbock to get the sentiment on paving streets, the Mayor stated the object of the meeting was to see if they wanted to vote three hundred thousand dollar bond to pave streets in addition to what they already had. No, no, no, was the response make it five hundred thousand and we will vote for it and cary the election for its no small thing in the west.

So if old Milam and the grand old city of Cameron don't come to the front it is just because some old mossback or tight wads are fighting the matter.

I have told you just jart of what I saw or heard so if you want to know any more call at my office any time and I will try and explain in a more satisfactory way of how the west does big things.

C. H. RUBY.

EULOGISES AMERICA IN SPEECH TO THOUSANDS

CONGRESSMAN LUTHER JOHNSON PRAISES AMERICAN INSTITUTIONS.

Individulism has made America what it is today is the central thought of an address deilvered to several thousand people in the City Park Tuesday by Congressman Luther Johnson of Corsicana.

In reviewing the history of America Mr. Johnson extoled the virtues of the patriots who have made history and paid a pretty compliment to the citizen who under our system of government has perpetuated in his daily life the thrilling forces of this ideal government.

Mr. Johnson was met at the S. A. & A. P. Station by a committee composed of T. S. Henderson, Judge John Watson, Judge Jeff T. Kemp and F. C. Fahrendorf. From the station the party went to the park where the parade formed and headed the procession.

At the conclusion of the parade Mr. Johnson was escorted to the speakers stand at the park and there was introduced by Mr. Henderson in an appropriate and forceful speech.

The address of Mr. Johnson was well received, many times during the speech, the crowds burst into cheers. In paying a tribute to the men of the South who have helped to make history and are now listed among the imortals, the names of Robert E. Lee and Woodrow Wilson brought prolonged applause from the thousands who stood for nearly an hour to listen to the address of Mr. Johnson.

Mr. Johnson did not mention any of the political issues that seem to have caught the attention of the party leaders but touched upon the immigration problem. He said that restriction is necessary at this time to properly assimilate the desirables who are coming to America that the spread of foreign ideas be curbed and turned into channels of American thought to be lost in respect for our institutions.

Mr. Johnson left Tuesday afternoon for his home in Corsicana. This is the second address he has delivered in Cameron, the first to the Commercial Club annual banquet held last March.

The construction of the school tax election law came up for trial before the District Court last week in the case of E. J. McCall et al vs. A. J. Lewis, County Attorney.

The Yarrellton school had a tax of 50c on the $100 valuation and desired to increase the tax to 75c and petitioned the County Judge for an election for an increase from 50c not to exceed 75c.

The trial court held that election could be valid only for a specified amount, or for an amount not to exceed $1 on the $100 valuation, and therefore, as a matter of the law, such election was void.

LONG LIFE

In buying a motor car, consider what the cost will be when divided over a period of years.

What is the car's reputation for satisfactory service after the first year? After the second? And after the third—and fourth?

These considerations, in the final analysis, are the true basis of economy in motoring.

And it is this attribute of long life to which Dodge Brothers Motor Car owes its chief claim upon the unalterable loyalty of its owners.

NEGRO IS LYNCHED BY PEOPLE OF 3 COUNTIES

Schulenberg, Texas, July 4.—About 200 enraged citizens f Fayette Colorado and Lavaca counties late yesterday took Jesse Bullock, 23 negro, from City Marshal O. B. Swinkey and lynched him.

Bullock was strung up on a convenient tree on Main street near the city hall.

The negro, bystanders said, confessed to having attacked a 12-year-old white girl at her parents' home near here.

The girl, the physician said, is in a critical condition.

Schulenberg is a little town in Fayette county bordering on Colorado and Lavaca counties. Citizens from the three counties tracked the negro down near the Navidad river bridge, following an alarm telephoned by farmers. There he was captured and brought back to the scene of the attack and the girl identified him.

So far as can be learned by the Herald damage by wind and lightening during the storm Saturday night was very light.

The most severe damage was reported by R. L. Batte on rent houses near his country estate. Lightening did considerable damage and the wind was heavy also.

In many sections of the county wind blew the corn to the ground and damaged the stock to some extent but generally the damage was negligible compared to the benefits from the rain over the county.

In some sections crops had begun to suffer from the drouth but the rain has developed new life. It is hoped that a general rain will fall sometime within the next week in order to insure mature corn and a good cotton yield.

CASE OF RAYMOND ALLISON IS GIVEN NEW HEARING.

The case State of Texas vs. Raymon Allison has been reversed and remanded by the court of Criminal Appeals at Austin on motion of the appelant for rehearing. Allison is represented by Robert M. Lyles, former Cameron attorney now in Groesbeck. He was tried in the district court and sentenced to serve in prison in connection with robberies in Thorndale.

NEGRO AND MULE ARE KILLED BY LIGHTENING.

While riding home from the cotton field on one of the plantations of R. L. Batte near the river one day last week, a negro was killed by lightening which also struck and killed the mule he was riding.

A small boy riding behind the negro was uninjured. This is the first death by lightening in the county this year, but one of a number of miraculous escapes as in the case of the boy who was not hurt.

The rainfall over the county was reported to be light.

T. B. Jones, a well known citizen of Calvert, delivered an address at the court house on Monday afternoon to an appreciative autdience.

Many of our citizens are old friends of Mr. Jones and gave him a most cordial welcome. The address was along unusual lines and was intended to present the simple truths of Christianity in a personal way.

The speakers life has been filled with varied incidents, he having participated for more than forty years in the active and at times turbulent, politics of Robertson county. More than ten years ago he was converted and since that time has laid aside carnal weapons and devoted himself in a quiet and modest way toward doing good in his home community.

The subject of his address was "The New Birth" and in a very forcible way he illustrated his subject by an outline of his own life culminating in the incidents connected with his conversion.

He did not do this in an egotistical fashion but in the quiet way of one who had been out on a voyage and upon returning was telling his old friends of his adventures.

He is an entertaining speaker and his address made a lasting impression upon his audience.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ-destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.

FARMERS' DREAMS COMING TRUE

What Leaders Think of Co-operative Marketing

Mr. M. B. Wellborn, Governor Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, Ga.:

An advance in the value of Southern crops over 1921 of approximately one billion dollars has placed the Southern Farmer on his feet after two years of struggle against adverse business condition. Farmers are marketing their crops instead of dumping them on the market and will get the benefit of the higher prices for farm products, which has not happened in the past.

Co-operative marketing associations are aiding this orderly disposal of products, and are meeting with such success that their membership may be materially increased next year.

The leading farmers are turning their thoughts to co-operative marketing, and where this movement tends towards the more gradual and orderly distribution of the crops to the consuming markets it is receiving the support of bankers.

I have never seen the time in the South when the financial institutions stood so strongly behind the farmers, and the Federal Reserve system is backing up these instituitons when they offer their customers' notes for rediscount.

He said recently: "The movement for the co-operative selling of cotton is the outgrowth of many abuses which have crept into the present system of individual marketing through a multitude of middlemen with their speculative control of the price. Co-operation is the order of the day. It is only through co-operation and compromise that civilization is advanced and those who oppose them oppose human progress.

"A banker must favor any movement which increases the prosperity of his customers if that movement is sound and based on a just conception of a proper division of the rewards of industry. I believe the co-operative movement to be such a movement and am heartily glad to indorse it."

Judge Robert Bingham, owner Louisville Courier Journal, who pledged one million dollars to cover the expense of organization of Tobacco Growers said:

"This co-operation is logical. It is a necessary pool of successful endeavor. A man is justified in getting into any sort of a law-abiding organization in order to maintain his economic independence and to prevent his children and his children's children from dropping into a stage of living which would canker their souls, deaden their brains and weaken their bodies.

If the producing element in any country is fairly prosperous that country is prosperous, but if he who toils or produces gets for himself and his own an amount insufficient to enable him to live decently and comfortable and to give his children an opportunity for education then there is radical error in the social order under which that man lives."

Morris Stern, San Antonio, Texas, Wholesale Grocer said:

"The Manufacturers are thoroughly organized. They watch production.

"They market systematically and by establishing high standards, create satisfactory consumption. The farmers can do likewise. The answer Co-operative Marketing."

Theodore H. Price, New York, editor Commerce and Finance, and a national authority of business and economics: A student in college at Athens, Georgia, wrote to Mr. Price that he had been chosen to take the negative side in a college debate of the proposition, "Resolved, that the farmers if the South should adopt a system of co-operative marketing of cotton." Mr. Price replied as follows: "Dear Mr. Edwards—I have your letter of the 30th. I am afraid I can't help you, for there is but one side to the question you are asked to consider. It is the affirmative side. I wouldn't urge non-co-operation even if I could adduce a hundred reasons in favor of it. It is only through co-operation and compromise that civilization is advanced and those who oppose them oppose human progress. I advise you to decline the assignment given you.—(Signed) THEO. H. PRICE."

Darlington, S. C.—That John Kirven, big cotton planter of this place, is a firm believer in co-operative marketing is shown by the fact that he has shipped a train load of old long staple cotton to the Carolina Cotton Grower's Co-operative Association, of which he is a member. The train consisted of 29 cars on which Mr. Kirven loaded 1,179 bales. Mr. Kirven's advance was $109,000.

Thus the dreams of cotton farmers are being realized. After generations of subservience to those who buy and spin their products, they are at last asserting their natural and inherent rights and are taking charge of their own business in a sane, intelligent and business-like way.

The co-operative marketing of cotton is today upon a permanent and enduring basis. The plan meets the approval and has won the support of the best farmers in the South, it has been studied and approved by the best business minds in the United States, it is operating successfully. All that remains to be done is to maintain the good record already made and draw farmers into the movement.

These organizations are strong now, but their strength is that of babes compared with what it will be when even one-half the cotton producers of the South have joined them.

There is a place in the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association for every cotton farmer in Texas. No man is too rich, too dignified or too self-sufficient to need its help, and no man is too poor or too obscure to share equally in its benefits. Its strength in membership and influence means a larger measure of prosperity for cotton farmers, more comfort and happiness for their families and better business for all legitimate trade and commerce.

The orderly marketing of our products will eventually stabilize the market and bring prosperity to the entire country. We desire to cooperate in any way possible and contribute this half page to Milam county farmers.

What Leaders Think of Co-operative Marketing

B. F. Yoakum, former Texan declares for Co-operation, his statements are based in part:

After presenting many details in his pamplet, Mr. Yoakum comes to a straight-out declaration in favor of co-operative marketing.

His statements are based in part upon Government statistics, but largely upon facts gathered by himself upon the advice of the United States Department of Agriculture. For example, he found that potatoes raised by himself and his neighbors sold at the farms at 60c a bushel, but were sold to consumers in New York City, only a few miles away, at the rate of $2 a bushel. Citing other data to show that consumers pay three times as much for farm produce as the farmers receive, Mr. Yoakum says that in New York City there is one food dealer population to each fifteen of city population.

Increas in and partial stabilization of the price of cotton through loans of the War Finance Corporation to nine associations in the south during the past season, thereby saving thousands of farmers from disaster, was epigrammatically described last night by George R. James, noted Memphis agricultural speaker, wholesaler and philanthropist, who was a member of the board—one of the dollar-a-year- men.

Mr. James was speaking at a meeting of farmers in the Whitehaven School Building as the opening gun of the drive for 10,000 bales in Shelby County to be pledged to the Tennessee Cotton Growers' Marketing Association, which is in the process of formation. He told the farmers' major problems of marketing and soil refertilization; the steam roller of co-operative marketing is moving swiftly, and soon would sweep over the contrary one who stands without, he declared.

"If the War Finance Corporation, according to Eugene Meyer, the chief had not loaned 36 million dollars to the nine associations last year, cotton today would be selling at 12 to 15 cents a pound." Mr. Jones declared.

SCHOOL TAX ELECTION AT YARRELTON STOPPED

The construction of the school tax election law came up for trial before the District Court last week in the case of E. J. McCall et al vs. A. J. Lewis, County Attorney.

The Yarrellton school had a tax of 50c on the $100 valuation and desired to increase the tax to 75c and petitioned the County Judge for an election for an increase from 50c not to exceed 75c.

The trial court held that election could be valid only for a specified amount, or for an amount not to exceed $1 on the $100 valuation, and therefore, as a matter of the law, such election was void.

LITTLE CHILD LOST IN BARBECUE CROWD RESTORED TO MOTHER.

A small girl thought to have been three years old was lost for several hours in the big crowd that gathered in the city park Tuesday for the barbecue. Strangers took the child in their care and a search was begun for the parents. Announcements were made from the speakers stand of the child and for a long time it was feared the parents could not be found.

The Herald has not learned if the child was restored to its parents during the day but having received no further reports assumes that all have been reunited. The ilttle girl wandered away from its mother and when found crying by strangers in the crowd gave her name as Copus but so far as we can learn not related to people by the same name in Cameron.

ROBS CALOMEL OF NAUSEA AND DANGER

MEDICINAL VIRTUES RETAINED AND IMPROVED—DANGEROUS AND SICKENING QUALITIES REMOVED PERFECTED TABLET CALLED "CALOTABS"

The latest triuph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known to the drug trade as "calotabs." Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines thus enters upon a wider field of popularity,—purified and refined from those objectionable qaulities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation, headaches and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often neglected on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take. One Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water,—that's all. No taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. A good night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine, with a clean liver, a purified system and a big appetite. Eat what you please No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original, sealed packages, price 35-cents for the large family package; ten cents for the small, trial size. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs. 9 13t

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common Garden Sage and Sulphur makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and youthful at once

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very litle cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

Vast Resources Make Possible High Value at Low Price in Studebaker Light-Six

Studebaker's vast resources are utilized to manufacture (not assemble) the Light-Six complete in the newest and most modern large automobile plants in the world.

The Corporation's resources, consisting of $85,000,000 of actual net assets, including $45,000,000 of plants, make it possible for Studebaker to offer a six-cylinder car, at less than $1,000, that is emphatically superior in design, construction, performance, comfort and dependability, to any car within hundreds of dollars of its price.

By complete manufacture, Studebaker not only guards the quality of each part, but saves the middlemen's profits, with the result that no other make of car ever built, by anyone, at any price, represents so great a dollar-for-dollar value as the Light-Six.

Evidence of its mechanical superiority is found in its practical freedom from vibration. This is accomplished by the perfect balance of the motor. Perfect balance is obtained largely through the complete machining of all surfaces of the crankshaft and connecting rods. This requires 61 precision operations.

This method is followed exclusively by Studebaker on cars at this price. In fact, very few other cars have this feature, and their prices are from three to ten times as great as that of the Light-Six.

It is significant, therefore, that the sale of more than 80,000 Studebaker cars during the first six months of this year broke all records.

Buyers are justified in expecting more for their money in a Studebaker than in any other car.

The Studebaker Light-Six

was designed by Studebaker engineers and is manufactured complete in the NEW STUDEBAKER PLANTS AT SOUTH BEND, IND., which are notable in design, size and equipment for efficient and economical manufacture.

The South Bend Plants contain 4,875,000 square feet of floor space.

They employ 12,000 persons.

They cost $33,250,000.

The South Bend Forge Plant cost $4,000,000, which alone is more than the total assets of many automobile companies.

And then there are:

The machine shops which cost $7,000,000.

The stamping plant which cost $4,000,000.

The new foundries which will cost over $2,000,000.

The power plants which cost $2,500,000.

The assembly and stock plants which cost $5,000,000, as well as closed and open body plants, spring shops, etc.

Studebaker plants, in cost and size, are the second largest of the world's automobile plants.

These facts show why it is possible for Studebaker to produce the Light-Six—a truly remarkable car—and sell it for less than a thousand dollars.

In actual car value per dollar of price the Light-Six is in a class by itself. No prospective buyer of an automobile should decide on anything until he has seen and driven this car.

It is backed by a corporation with $85,000,000 of actual net assets and a 71-year reputation for honest product and fair dealing.

CAPT. WALTER H. CLARK, PIONEER CITIZEN, DEAD

RESIDENT OF SAN GABRIEL PASSED AWAY AT HOME THERE MONDAY.

Confederate veteran, pioneer and outstanding citizen in Milam county for many years, Capt. Walter H. Clark, died at his home near San Gabriel Monday night July 2, 1923, at 10:30 o'clock and with his passing the fast thinning ranks of that gallant gray army of the Southland lost one of its most distingushed soldiers.

Capt. Clark was born near Brevard, Henderson county, North Carolina, November 7, 1843, and at the time of his death was 79 years, 7 months and 25 days of age. He came to Texas in 1873 arriving in the state on July 4. He settled near San Gabriel and engaged in the gin business which he followed for nearly four decades. Pneumonia was the cause of his death, although in recent years his health had been poor. He was ill only four days before his death.

On December 7, 1866, he was married to Miss Almene Wilson and to them four children were born, Maddie, Willis, Birdie and Zora. He married again on December 11, 1874 to Miss Francis Wilson, sister of his first wife who now survives him and is now in Cameron to live with their granddaughter, Mrs. Leo Wilkerson. Besides these a foster granddaughter, Mrs. Ed. Fipps of San Gabriel and a number of nieces and nephews survive him.

When but 17 years of age he joined the Confederate forces in Tennessee, serving in Govan's Brigade, Regiment No. 7, Company H. Clayburn's Division, Hardie's Corps. It was also at this age that he became a member of the Christian church to which faith he was consecrated and lived until his death. He had been engaged in business for many years and had acquired large holdings.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Roberts, Christian minister from Bartlett and interment was made in Locklin cemetery. He was an Odd Fellow and had been a distinguished member of that fraternity for many years.
